

Briefkarte von Natalie Curtis an Ferruccio Busoni (New York, 17. Juni 1915)

Thursday.

Wave Crest. Far Rockaway. Long Island. N. Y.

Lieber Meister! – Indian Book goes to you by this mail. Yes, I have many unpublished themes – will send you some soon. Other works are * American Primitive Music Frederick Burton * devoted to the songs of one tribe (Ojibway) * some of the music newly arranged by the author, Burton. * Indian Story and Song. Alice Fletcher * harmonized by Fillmore (à la (Richter and Jadassohn. Har monielehre[]])

A real letter follows. This is just a hasty line. – You will find in the libraries some works of Franz Boas – themes from the North West coast tribes. Also some Hopi melodies (11) by Gilman, or Gilmore.

Don't scold the mails! – It is my fault that my card was only mailed to you in Philadelphia Tuesday evening en route to N. Y. Far Rockaway, where I now am – with affectionate greetings

N. C.
