

Letter by Natalie Curtis to Ferruccio Busoni (Paris, 17 October 1921)

Dear friend —

I wrote you a long letter to London – probably you never received it. And two months ago I saw Raphael in Paris. Are you coming to Paris – when? – I long to see you!

I want to send you my last book. Will the address of this letter reach you? Please let me know.

Warm, affectionate

greetings from

your old friend

(almost an antique!
